Finalised survey questions

3. As requested, we have revised and finalised the survey questions in consultation with Hon Martin. She has advised us that she is happy with the finalised questions below.
 - What does a successful student of the future look like to you?
 - What will they need to know and be able to do?
 - What things need to be in place to make sure every learner is successful?
 - If you were the boss of education in New Zealand, what would you do first?
4. These questions meet the needs discussed with you this week:
 - Future-focused, learner-centric questions
 - Simple language
 - Does not refer to the structure of the education system, rather what it needs to deliver
 - Enables responses about excellence and equity
 - Will resonate with Māori
 - Are easy to translate into Māori and other languages
 - Encourages imagination and story-telling, making it engaging for children as well as parents
