Summary

1. Under the Education and Training Act 2020 (the Act), the Minister of Education may, by notice in the New Zealand Gazette (the Gazette), issue a Statement of National Education and Learning Priorities (NELP) for early childhood education, primary education, and secondary education.
2. Also under the Act, the Minister of Education must, by notice in the Gazette, issue a Tertiary Education Strategy (TES) that sets out the Government's long-term strategic direction for tertiary education, which must include economic goals, social goals, environmental goals, the development aspirations of Māori and other population groups; and current and medium-term priorities for tertiary education.
3. Following broad consultation on the draft NELP and TES in 2019 (METIS 1205230 and 1214917 refer) as required by the Act, a final NELP and TES were endorsed by the Cabinet Social Wellbeing Committee on 5 August 2020 [SWC-20-MIN-0130].
4. A joint Gazette notice issuing the final NELP and TES is attached in English and te reo Māori (Annex 1) for you to sign.

5. We intend to publish this notice in the Gazette on Thursday, 17 September, assuming we can forward the signed notice for publication two working days prior to publication date.
6. The Ministry recommends providing the NELP and TES to peak bodies, under embargo, one day in advance of the official launch, to ensure they have time to familiarise themselves with the content, and to prepare to respond to queries from places of learning.
